

RENZIONI

LUXURY DESTINATION WEDDINGS

Events and Experiences

THE HOUSE

A planning house, not a decorator

RENZIONI began in Kampala and now plans from Doha. That route is the whole point of the company: we have run celebrations in East Africa, the Gulf and the Indian Ocean, and we know what changes when a wedding crosses a border.

Permits that take a fortnight in one country take a season in another. A florist who is exceptional in Mauritius cannot ship to Cape Verde. Guests flying from three continents will not all land on the same day. None of this is visible in a moodboard, and all of it decides whether the day works.

HOW WE WORK

A limited number of weddings

We do not run celebrations in parallel. The team that meets you is the team on site.

Costed before booked

You see a written budget before a single deposit is paid.

People in the country

Someone from RENZIONI is on the ground before the guests arrive.

What we take on
